

DAILY GRAPHIC REVIEW OF NEWS EVENTS

FIRST PHOTOGRAPH OF PRINCE ANDREW'S TRIAL by Greek tribunal that banished him after having sentenced to death five Ministers, including their former Premier. Prince is seated at right. Standing at left is his accuser, Gen. Papoulas. (Int'l Newsreel.)

RADIANT GIRLHOOD won prize for Miss Alice Oppenheimer, of Far Rockaway, N. Y., judged nearest physically perfect among 900 in her high school.

IN THIS HOUSE IN THORN, POLAND, Nikolaus Copernicus, most famous of all astronomers, was born February 19, 1473. His 450th anniversary will be celebrated there next year. (Int'l Newsreel.)

ITALY'S NEW AMBASSADOR, Prince Galasino Caetani, follower of Mussolini, has arrived in America. Big delegation of Italian natives greeted him. Prince, who has spent greater part of life in America, quit as California mining man in 1915 and entered Italian army, where he won bravery medals in World War. (Int'l Newsreel.)

STILL BELIEVES IN SANTA CLAUS—Mrs. Matie Moore, "91-years-young" Brooklyn, N. Y., woman, insisted on doing her own Christmas shopping and even enjoyed mechanical toys. (N. Y. A.)

UNIQUE SOUVENIR CALENDAR issued from British Legion catalog, greeting from Prince of Wales, in own handwriting, and also message from Lord Haig, British Commander-in-Chief in World War, and Earl Beatty, Commander of Fleet. (Int'l Newsreel.)

U. S. SENATOR M'CORMICK (left), of Illinois, snapped on visit to Berlin. (Int'l Newsreel.)

GET ONE FOR YOUR SWEETHEART—Diamond finger ring watches, at $500, are all rage in London. (Int'l Newsreel.)

SHE DIDN'T LOVE HIM, so pretty Lolo Toro, New York City girl, is dying, victim of Urbano Miranda, her suitor, who then shot and killed himself when she refused to wed him. (N. Y. A.)

ADMIRAL E. W. EBERLE, commander of Pacific fleet, seems midget under mighty guns of U. S. S. California, his flagship. (Int'l Newsreel.)

MAKING THEIR LAST RUN—Horses of Fire Company No. 205, Brooklyn, answering their last alarm before being displaced by motor apparatus. No horses are now left in Greater New York Fire Department. (N. Y. A.)

MRS. WINIFRED WILTON WILSON, of Hastings-on-Hudson, Canadian woman barrister, married Capt. Archibald Stevens Wilson, American, and became first British woman permitted to practice law in New York. She specializes entirely in cases concerning welfare of children, being mother of one. (Int'l Newsreel.)

MODERN D'ARTAGNAN—Prof. Tassart, world-famous swordsman, having tilt with Lance White, aged 5, his youngest pupil. Touche! (Int'l Newsreel.)

MABEL GARRISON, grand opera star, returning from Europe, registered complete satisfaction after playing feature engagements in Berlin and Vienna. (Int'l Newsreel.)

BENITO MUSSOLINI, Premier of Italy, with bodyguard of black-shirted Fascisti, as he appeared at London conference of Premiers. (Int'l Newsreel.)

RUSSIAN BRIDE ABANDONED—Mrs. Clare Howard (right), 20, wife of former service man she met in Siberia, has asked police of San Francisco to find missing husband for her. (Int'l Newsreel.)

UNEASY LIES HEAD THAT WEARS CROWN, though Queen Helene, of Greece, formerly Princess Helene of Rumania, doesn't show much fear of Greek revolt as she plays with little son, Crown Prince Michael. (Int'l Newsreel.)

Copyright © 1922, International News Service.